Prologue

The Scottonian staff of 1947, in searching for a theme for this year's book, noted an interesting parallel between the theater and the school.

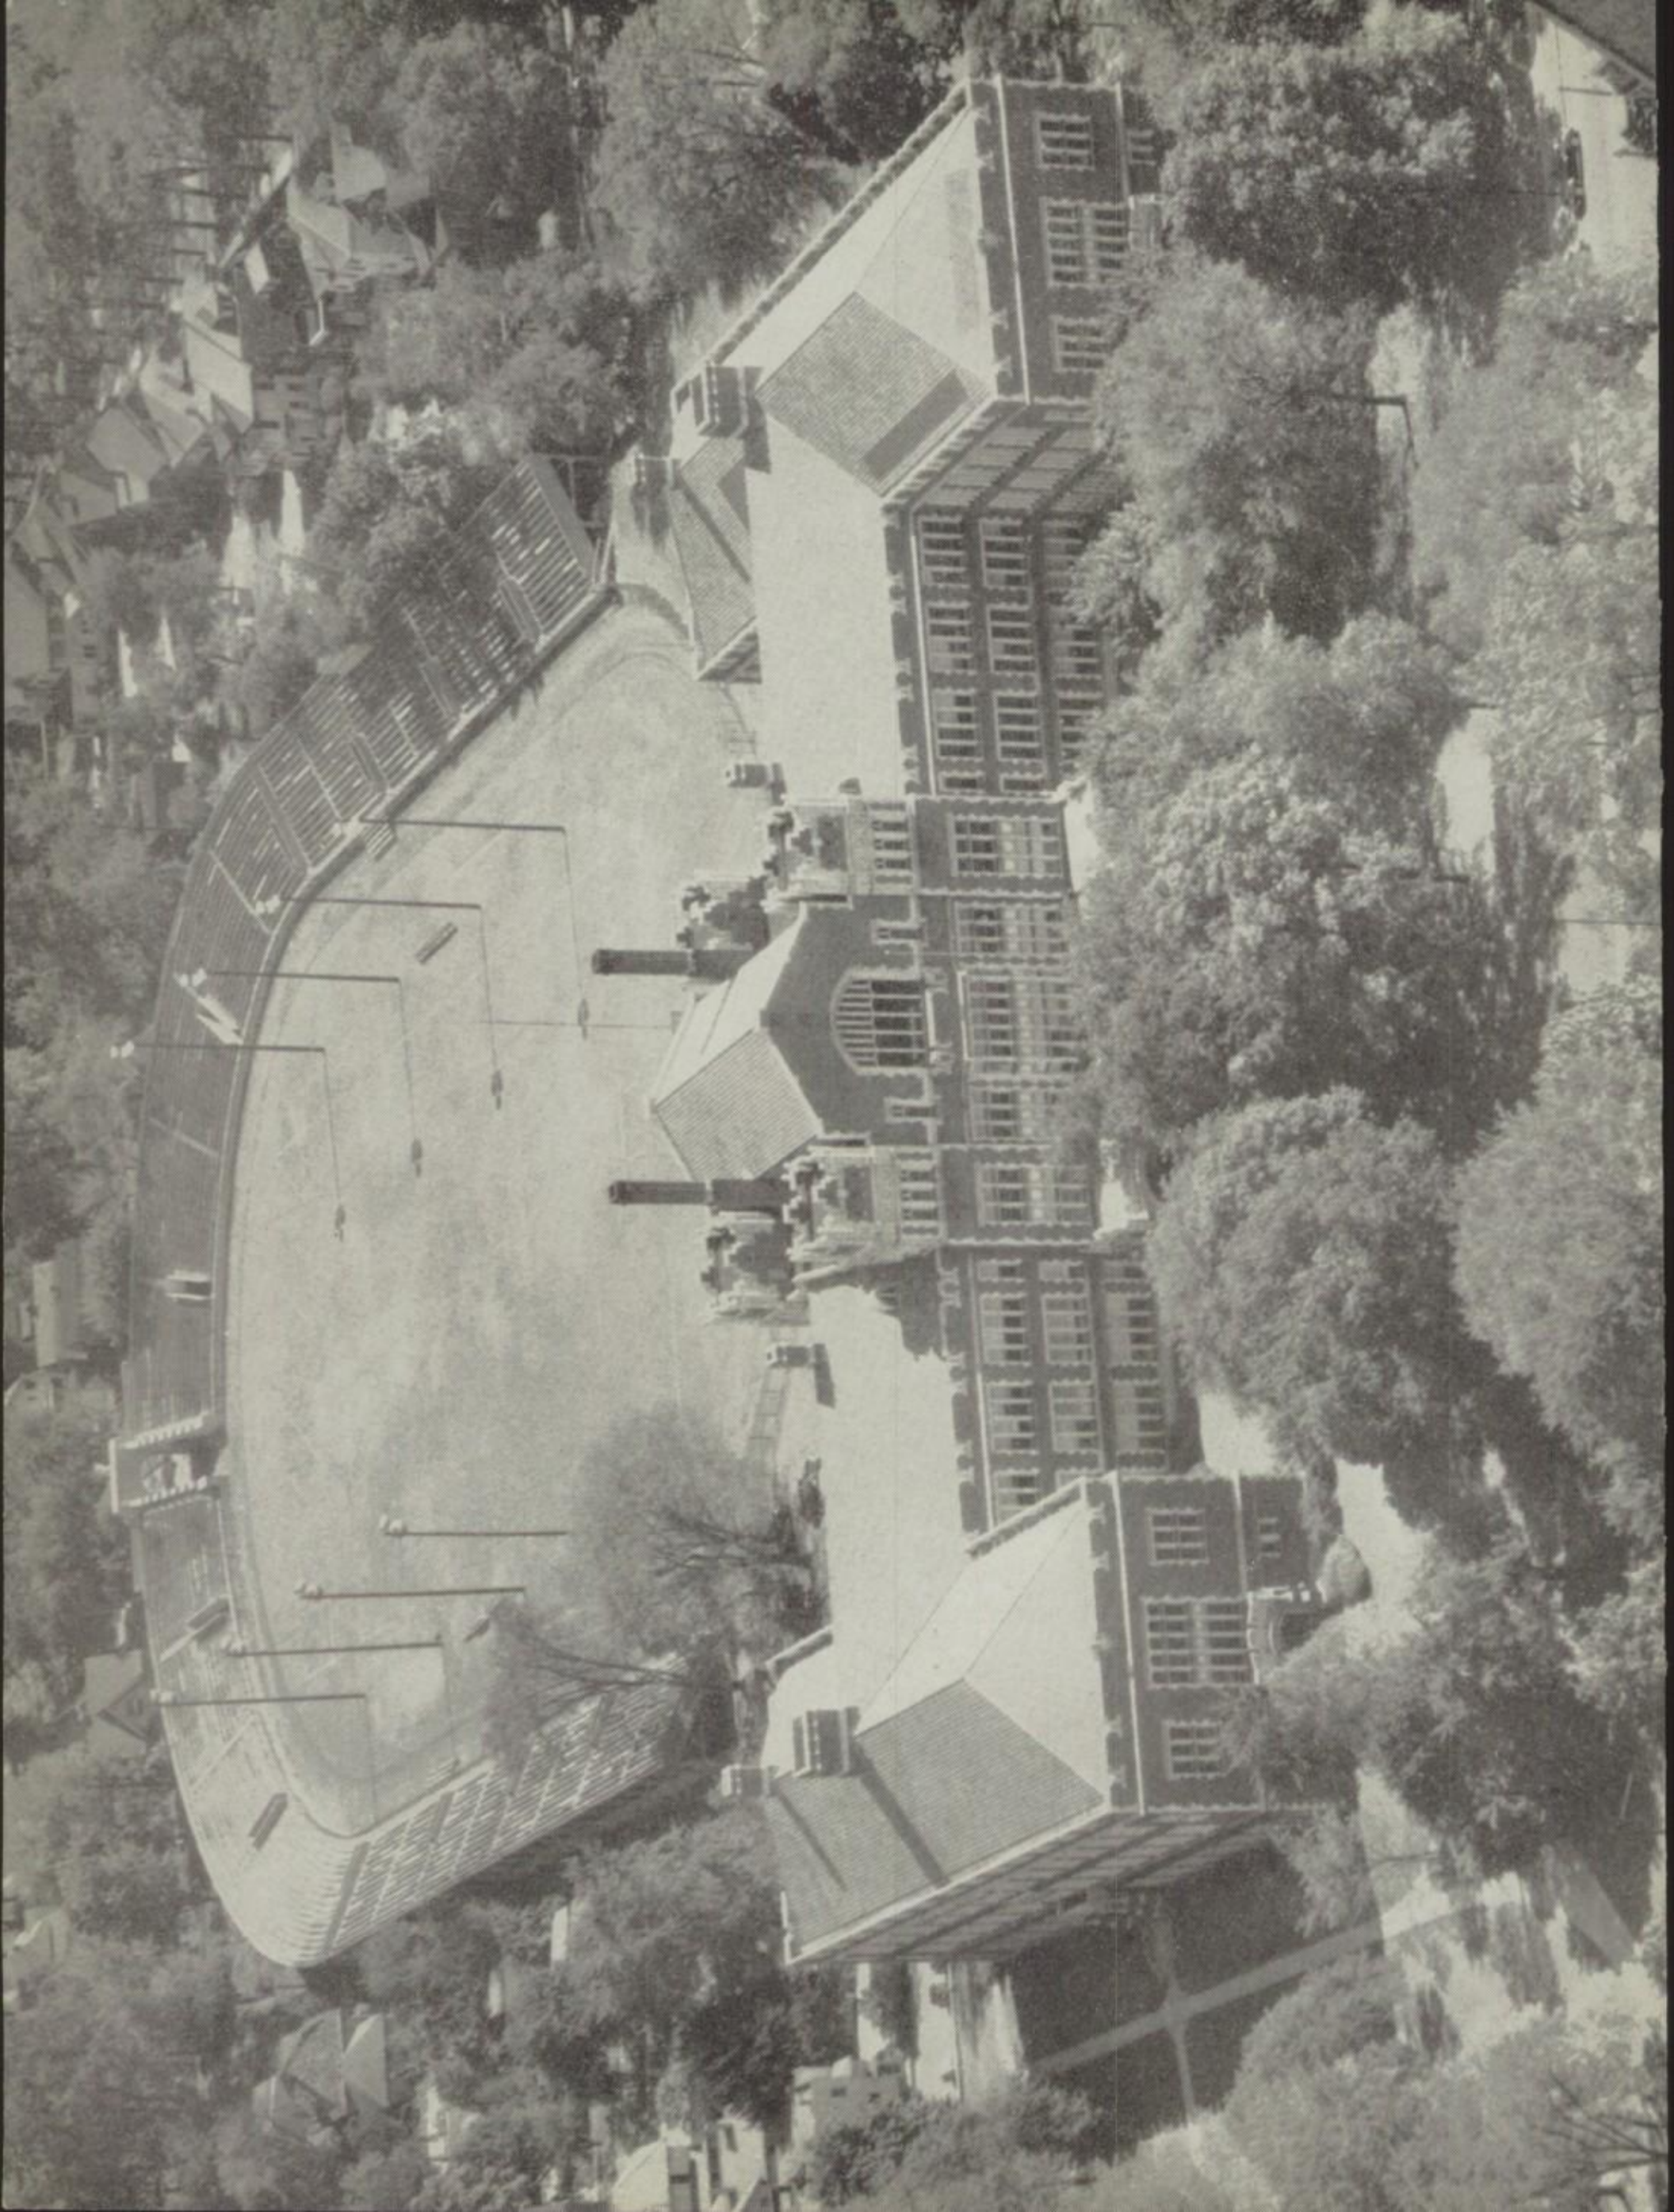

The staff asks you to consider the students as actors and actresses and the school as the stage upon which many acts are here presented to you.

In Scott, 'there lies the scene.'

—Shakespeare

Miss Wilma Kudzia

Dedication

Most of the pages of this book describe the play which was presented this past year, but on these pages we would like to remind you, not only of this recent performance, but also of the ones of the past three years.

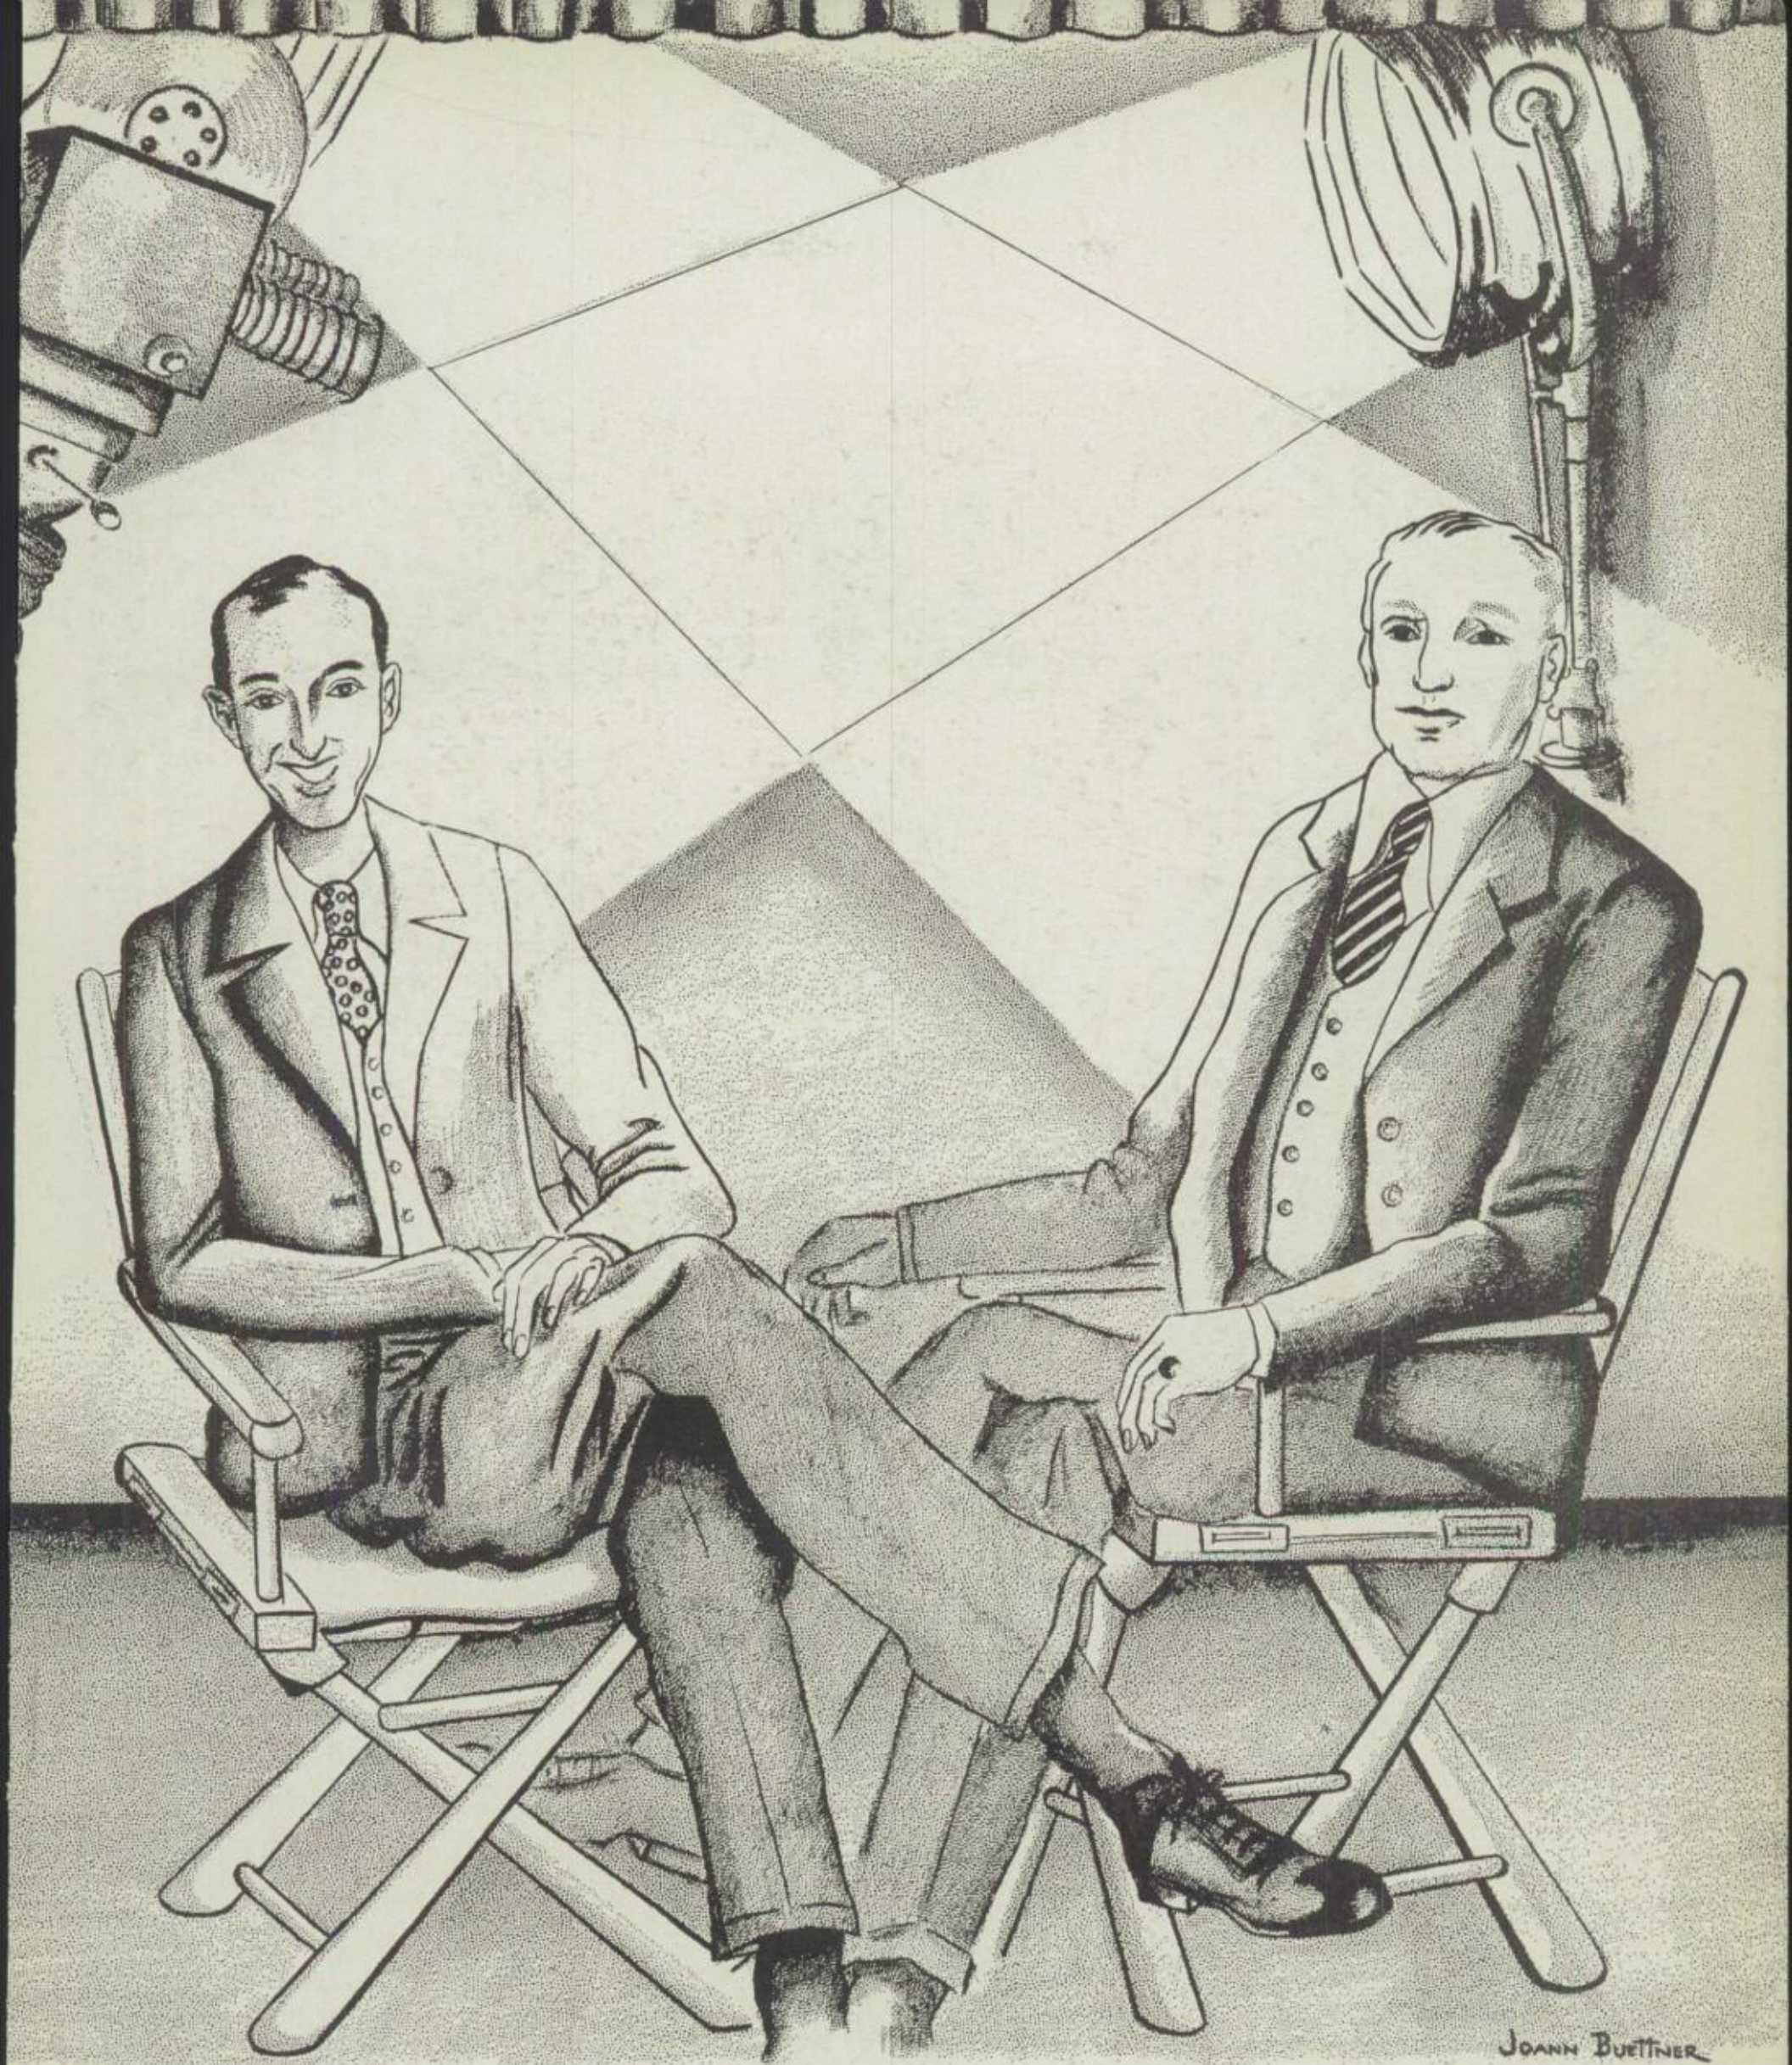

Those three years included many very enjoyable school events—most of which were under the supervision of Miss Wilma Kudzia. As Coordinator of Student Activities, she was director of the Student Council, was adviser of the publicity commission, and indirectly advised all commissions on the council. It was also her duty to see that club, class, and Student Council projects did not conflict.

During the past year she served as adviser of the Senior Y-Teen Club. Again her ability to guide young people was evident.

The Class of '47 can leave Scott with many pleasant memories of high school years, thanks to her diligence and efforts. The staff, in appreciation of her labors, dedicates this thirty-fourth edition of the Scottonian to—Miss Wilma Kudzia.

Members of Mr. Corbett's third hour Advanced Algebra class seem to enjoy studying their "P's and cues."

DIRECTORS

Producer

Edward L. Bowsher

The producer of this entire production, Edward L. Bowsher, is a man of much experience and ability. He has done much to promote public interest in this type of play and has been one of those people striving for higher remuneration and due recognition for the directors and stage managers.

Mr. Bowsher has not confined his talents to the local theater, however, but is well known for his participation in state and national productions also.

Director

There is nothing easy about directing a play that has fifteen hundred participants. However, under the competent and understanding direction of Richard Langstaff, the Scott production was acclaimed as one of the most successful of its kind. Any delays or difficulties that arose during production were capably dealt with by our principal.

Richard J. Langstaff

Assistant Directors

Vernon R. Alberstett

Miss Anne Smead

For a play produced on as large a scale as this one, it is necessary to have assistant directors, and able ones these are.

The male cast works under the guidance of Vernon R. Alberstett, dean of boys, who capably fits the boys into their parts and works with them constantly, striving to perfect their talents.

Miss Anne Smead, dean of girls, is the director of the feminine cast. There is no one who adapts himself to his job better than Miss Smead does to hers. Almost all the girls in the production have, at one time or another during the play, received gracious assistance with some problem from their director.

Advisory Staff

To keep the play moving along at a proper pace an advisory staff is necessary. Much of the success of all activities which have taken place throughout this past school year can be accredited to four people. Skillfully performing their duties are Mr. R. J. Langstaff who advised the finance commission; Mr. Thad Corbett who steered the publicity commission; Miss Margaret Schaff who assisted the social commission; and Mrs. Louise Meffley who guided the assembly commission and the organization commission. Applause should be given them for a job well done.

Mr. Langstaff

Mr. Corbett

Miss Schaff

Mrs. Meffley

Business Staff

Miss Helen McCoy

Mrs. Margaret Biggs

Miss Alberta Seewer

Miss Marian Masell

A theatre cannot be run smoothly unless there is an efficient office force backing it. Handling receipts and keeping the records straight are the major duties of the business staff of this play.

Patrons

Mr. Willard, Mr. Langstaff, Mr. Sewell, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Beck, Mr. Rogers, Mrs. Briese.

Skillfully playing their roles as sponsors of a great production, the members of the Scott High Parent-Teachers Association have shown deep interest in all activities pertaining to our school.

They got underway early last fall by electing officers. Mr. Herbert Sewell became president, the Rev. W. L. Horst vice president, Mrs. A. H. Haslam secretary, and Mr. H. R. Rogers treasurer. The officers were assisted by Mrs. Herman Greene, membership chairman; Mrs. Waldo Beck, chairman of room mothers; Mrs. Clifford Fleming, publicity chairman, and Mr. Homer Willard, budget and finance.

Programs of this year were planned for their timely interest. At one meeting Dr. Anthony Borowski, Superintendent and Registrar of the Bureau of Vital Statistics spoke on the function of a city health department. The P.-T. A. sponsored a demonstration by General Motors, "Preview of Progress," which revealed recent scientific discoveries and included a miniature atom explosion. The "Preview of Progress" was held over as an assembly for students the following day.

The P.-T. A. also made plans for the Spring Musical featuring the Scott High School music department.

Medical Staff

Every production has a schedule to meet, so lost time is a great detriment to all concerned.

Illness bothers many productions. However, a cast whose members are protected by careful observance of health laws is most unlikely to lose time because of poor health.

Mrs. Leuty Briese and her staff see that all preventive and precautionary steps are taken to insure the best of health for every member of the Scott play.

Denelda Bashore, Pat Overholser, Ordell Edwards, Mrs. Briese, Mary Kubec, Norma Randell, Eileen Calliff, Sue Gallagher, Jackie Jackson, Charlotte Martin.

Prompters

The Scott production has had a minimum of problems concerning lines because there is a capable group of prompters headed by the librarian Miss Carrie Wiseley.

Miss Wiseley and her staff dispel reading deficiencies for all members of the cast with equal rapidity and ease.

Starlets

They studied and practiced for eight years, and then, after an audition, the freshman class joined the cast at Scott last fall.

The class organized early, choosing Warren Matthews, president; Barney Hein, vice-president; Katherine Sonner, secretary and Irene Lake, treasurer.

There were two freshman-sponsored assemblies during the year: the first, on April 10, was a safety assembly at which Sergeant Merl Gladioux spoke; the second presented Mr. Victor L. Brennaman, who on May 9, talked about first aid.

The freshman class has in prospect a very promising career, and they are aggressive enough, and talented enough to realize that career.

Stars in the Making

After a year of training, the sophomores began another year of study in a supporting role. During that time they showed their great possibilities.

The class election took place in the middle of the year. Martha Hibbert was chosen president; Jo Anne Douglas, vice president; Betty Adams, secretary; and Georgia Cohen, treasurer.

The class's major social event of the year was the Sophomore Prom which was held in the refectory on May 9, and was quite a success.

When the time comes for these "Stars to Be" to assume more important roles, they will show their capability. They have been faithful understudies; soon they will be the stars.

The Junior Class had a very successful dress rehearsal for '48 under the direction of their elected officers, David Plant, president; Jean Miles, vice president; Sue Smith, secretary; and Sue Shawaker, treasurer, and the class adviser Miss Margaret Schaff.

The class presented the "J-Hop" on March 29 which was nicely planned by Harold Barrett and Nancy Brigham and their social committee. The ring committee, headed by John Roemer and Dorothy Arenson, made a fine selection.

These juniors have proved their ability to assume the leading roles next year.

Boys that participate in sports must have a medical examination.

Miss Keplinger's sewing class works away happily. Esther Salzman and Florence Straub, from one of Miss O'Brien's history classes, clean the trophy case. T.B. patch tests were cheerfully endured early in the fall by the seniors.

Delphine Nowaczyk, Bamby Snyder and Carla Thomas learn the fine art of setting the table from practice teacher Martha Lou Seubert of T.U.

Fall canning was done by a Foods I class.

At the J-Hop

Stars of Today

When we entered Scott back in 1943, we realized that we were pretty insignificant in the eyes of upper-classmen. But we proved that our class was one to be reckoned with.

As freshmen, we started out with a regular four-officer class organization, instead of a council. Our officers, Ray Reisbach, president, Don Loss, vice president, Margie Greene, secretary, and Ruth Heimlicher, treasurer, saw to it that we beat the other classes in the magazine campaign, which netted us three hundred dollars.

George Cherry, president, John Lawrence, vice president, Donna Peterson, secretary, and Charles Parmelee, treasurer, planned for us, as sophomores, a free class party. In May, we had a fine time at the Sophomore Prom.

Then we became juniors. We felt pretty important when we saw all the seniors who attended our J-Hop, and we were justifiably proud of our class rings. Don Loss, president, Cookie Beck, vice president, Ruth Hawkins, secretary, and Margie Greene, treasurer, were responsible for us that year.

And now we're seniors. Bill Walton, Frank Stevens, Gloria Nelson, and Louis Millman, as president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, saw to it that all our class undertakings were successful. Everyone enjoyed our play, "George Washington Slept Here." None of us that went to the Senior Prom will forget it for a long, long time. The baccalaureate services and commencement are ever to be remembered. If, when we go out into the world to college or to begin our career, we find the going rough, we can find solace in those memories which we hold dear to Scott.

SCOTT 19 FINDLAY 14

The Scott football team opened its season by traveling to Findlay and defeating the Trojans 19 to 14 in a clean, hard-fought game. The Bulldogs showed their superiority by coming from behind at the half to win over a bigger, heavier team. Bill Burroughs, Bill Wakefield and Porter King began to give an idea of things to come later in the year with their scores and points after touchdown.

SCOTT 0 LIBBEY 21

The Libbey Cowboys victimized the Bulldogs the following weekend by springing a shifting defense and a much heavier line. Although the Maroon and White played hard, the lack of replacements made itself felt as the game progressed and the same eleven boys kept on taking a physical beating.

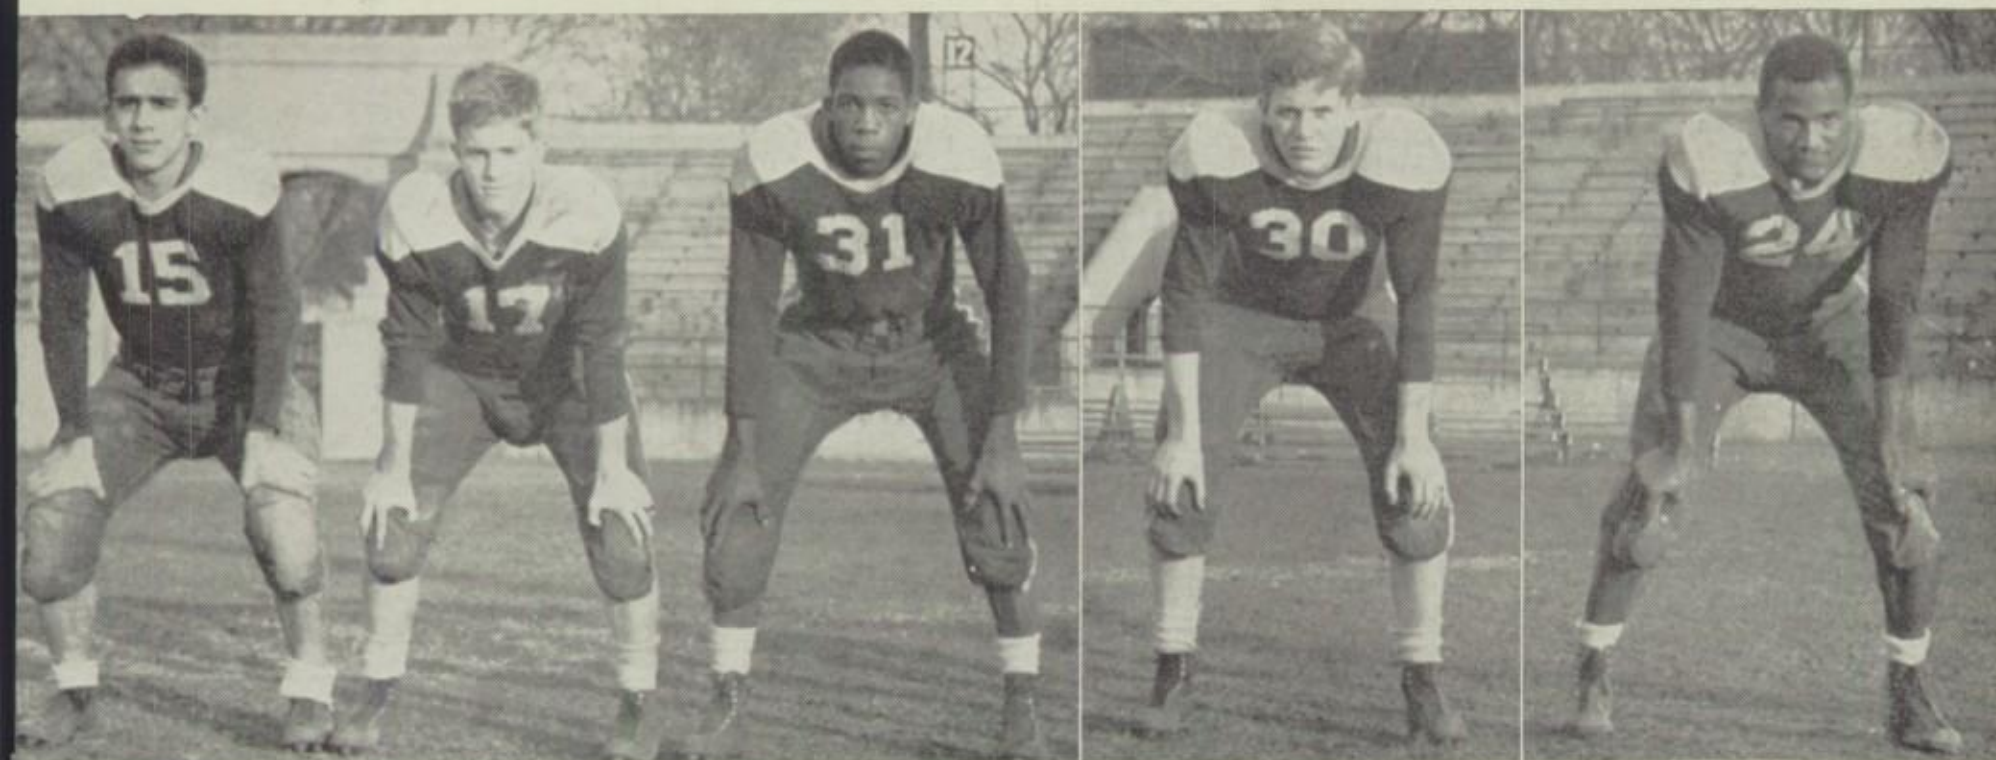

SCOTT 0 CENTRAL 19

Still suffering from the defeat by Libbey, the Scott

Bulldogs found themselves on the short end of a 19 to 0 score after four more quarters of football. Some part of Central's success may be credited to a break in the first few minutes of play, when they recovered a Scott fumble inside the ten yard line and pushed across a score.

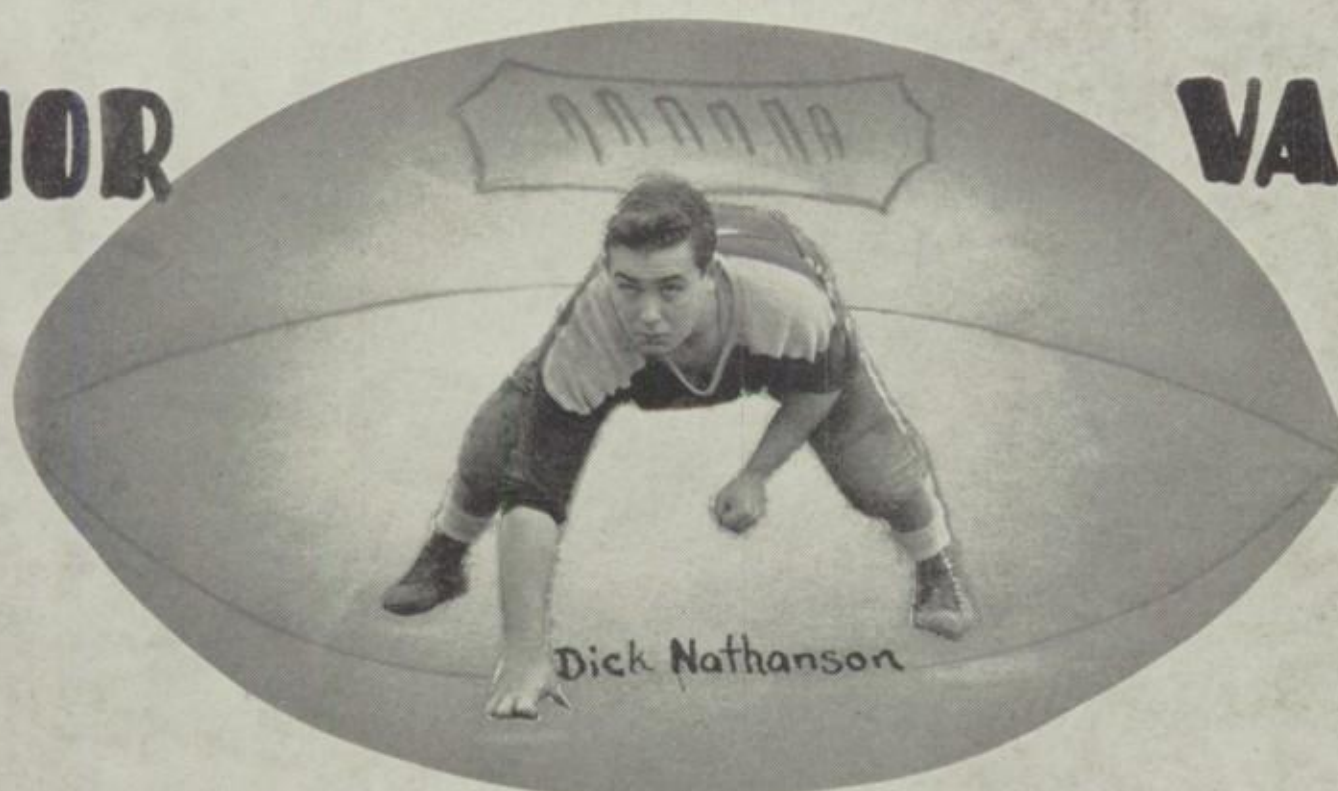

SCOTT 13 DAYTON STIVERS 0

Proving that two defeats in a row can't keep the Maroon and White down, Scott went to Dayton for their first overnight trip and showed some of the residents of Al Sacksteder's home town how Toledo plays football. The first half was scoreless, but Scott came out and played the first of their startling second half rallies. One touchdown was put across Stivers' goal line within six plays after the third quarter started. The second score came in the last quarter on a 63 yard run by Bill Burroughs with expert blocking in the line as well as beautiful down-field blocking.

SCOTT 13 WOODWARD 12

Many eyes were focused on the game with the Polar Bears since they had held Libbey to a scoreless tie and Libbey had beaten Waite. Many of these eyes were opened wide in surprise as the Scott team showed football ability and sparkle as they came from behind 12 to 0 as the important point after the touchdown which proved to be the margin of victory.

SCOTT 7 DEVILBISS 19

The revitalized DeVilbiss Tigers under Don Sharpe won a heartbreaker from the Bulldogs on this particular weekend. DeVilbiss capitalized on costly fumbles and intercepted passes, one instance occurring when a DeVilbiss tackle caught a Scott fumble before it hit the ground and ran across the goal line with it.

SCOTT 0 LIBBEY 32

The Scott eleven, still pretty well shaken up from the hard game with DeVilbiss, took a muddy beating from the city champion Cowboys. The Bulldogs just couldn't seem to get started while Libbey, using their many fresh backfield replacements, was very hard to slow down.

SCOTT 14 FORT WAYNE SOUTH 12

The Fort Wayne game was played on an extremely wet and slippery field of mud. The two teams were not as evenly matched as the score might indicate, but the Green Archers did put up a good fight and managed to spring several surprises. In spite of the mire underfoot, the people in the stands saw some brilliant runs as well as hard blocking and tackling.

SCOTT 0 CANTON McKINLEY 47

Feeling the effects of a five hour bus trip, the Scott Bulldogs suffered a 47 to 0 defeat at the hands of another team of Bulldogs. McKinley showed why they were considered second only to Waite in the state of Ohio with hard fast runners and good tackling.

SCOTT 13 CENTRAL 26

What started out like a sweeping victory for Scott turned into a 13 point defeat by Central. In the first part of the game Scott scored a quick touchdown and held Central deep in their own territory. The Bulldogs muffed several good scoring chances however, and Central did some scoring themselves. A final Scott drive from its own twenty yard was halted on Central's two yard line when the final gun went off ending the game.

THANKSGIVING GAME 1946

WAITE 57 SCOTT 0

Everything was very cold Thanksgiving morn except the Waite Football team, and possibly the turkey home in the oven. Scott was treated to a demonstration of what makes an all-state football team. The important thing, however, wasn't the score so much as it was the sportsmanship shown by both sides. The fighting spirit was clearly evident to all who saw that game. Waite used every player on the bench and the Scott team was fighting right up to the final gun.

Most of the boys who played for Scott this year will be back again next year, and they have promised that the Thanksgiving game of 1947 will be a different story.

This year Scott had one of the most promising lightweight teams it has had in several years. They had a heavy line and a backfield full of capable boys. If there was anything lacking at all in the team it was probably a little speed and, of course, experience.

The coaching of the future varsity men was handled very ably by Ralph Merickel, who used to coach here before he went into the army.

The boys lost only one game by more than a touchdown, and if they continue their hard work and progress, Scott will soon have one of the best teams it has had for several years.

Andy Kandik took over the varsity basketball team this year and molded a team composed mainly of juniors that showed promise of making one of the best Scott teams to come out on the floor. Andy didn't expect to win very often this year, but he wanted the younger boys to get plenty of experience playing together so that next year they can really go to town.

It was somewhat unfortunate that Scott had to open the season against city champions WOODWARD, but the team played a good game up until the last quarter. Then the strain was too much and Woodward pulled away to win 53 to 29.

FT. WAYNE CONCORDIA came here next to give Scott a chance to tack a win under their belts, which they did, 49-48.

Out at DEVILBISS the following weekend Scott played another good game but fell a little bit short. The Tigers took a 38 to 25 decision.

The next game with WAITE was a real heart-breaker. Scott outplayed the Indians all the way, but they just didn't seem to have the right luck and the game ended a tie. At the end of the first overtime the score was again knotted, and it was during the second overtime that Waite sunk the winning bucket, giving them a 38 to 37 victory.

In a really hard, fast game, Scott avenged the defeat by Waite by smothering LIBBEY 39 to 26. This game saw some of the best ball playing of the year on Scott's part.

The trip to BOWLING GREEN wasn't too profitable since the Bulldogs lost by a margin of 4 points, 32 to 28.

CENTRAL was the next team to take the measure of the Bulldogs. Using their advantages of height and playing on their home court, the Irish won 49 to 31.

Scott came back into the winning column by dumping MACOMBER next. It was another of those games that gives spectators heart trouble, but it ended satisfactorily with Scott winning 38 to 37.

The next night after the gruelling game with Macomber, Scott went out to ROSSFORD and dropped a 28 to 23 decision.

The DEVILBISS Tigers received quite a surprise when they came to Scott for their return game. They jumped off to a big lead early in the game and then saw the Scott five bear down and really apply the pressure. At the end of the game the score was tied up and so were the fans' vocal chords. In the overtime DeVilbiss got a couple of lucky shots and won 48 to 45.

The next road game for the Scott five was at DEFIANCE. The Bulldogs took a first quarter lead, only to lose it in the second and third quarters and have to really work in the last quarter to win 41 to 39.

The next game with city champion WOODWARD didn't turn out as badly as the first game in spite of the Bulldogs' disadvantage of playing on Woodward's home court. In fact, if Scott could have hit on some of their many shots that rolled out of the bucket in the first half they might have won rather than losing 48-30.

Scott outplayed WAITE all the way in their second meeting of the season, but Waite poured in several shots from way out on the floor and won 31-27.

The LIBBEY game saw both teams playing at top speed for four quarters. At no time was either team very far out in front and the end of the game saw the Bulldogs unsuccessfully trying to overcome a one point advantage. The Cowboys won 38-37.

Scott gave CENTRAL a real battle when the Irish played in the Bulldog gym. Central built up a lead only to see it dissolve. From there on in the game was tight until Central pulled away to a 54-45 win in the final minutes.

MACOMBER used its height and home court to best advantages in Scott's return game with them. The Bulldogs were in there pitching all the time but just couldn't seem to connect as the Craftsmen won 43-38.

In the tournament at the Toledo University Field House Scott drew WOODWARD as their first opponent. The boys in red played one of their best games of the entire season in an effort to stay in state competition, but it wasn't enough to stop the Polar Bears. And so after playing a fine game Scott lost 44-35.

Last year as track coach, Joe Collins turned out another high class team. The cindermen came through a tough season with a record of 6 wins and 1 loss. They took second place in the city, third in the district at Bowling Green, and scored 11 points in the state meet at Columbus. A notable feature of the team was the abundance of underclassmen who were consistently taking points. This, together with the working spirit of these boys, gives rise to strong hopes for a city championship team in the 1947 season.

The first meet of the year was run while spring football was in progress and some of the track men were still playing football. This didn't seem to bother the Maroon and White too much though, since they won by a devastating 90 to 28 score over DELTA.

The next meet was somewhat tougher since BOWLING GREEN takes a great interest in their track teams and hardly ever fails to turn out boys who win points at the state meets. But Scott put on the pressure and won going away with a 69 to 49 verdict.

Following this the Bulldogs fell victim to the state champion DEVILBISS Tigers. All through the meet the boys' best efforts weren't quite good enough and DeVilbiss pulled away to a 79 to 39 victory.

The closest meet of the season came the next Wednesday when CENTRAL invaded the Scott stronghold. The battle was nip and tuck right up to the mile relay. This was supposed to be Scott's race, since the Bulldogs have always had a good mile relay team, but the first runner suffered a cramped muscle just as the race started and Central won, going ahead by a few points. It took the last two field events to give Scott a well earned 64 to 54 triumph.

Dick Smith and Walt Hoover go over the hurdles . . . Al Stuart excels in the high jump . . . Bill Burroughs, John Williams, John Mould, Bill Black, and Walt Hoover line up for a dash . . . Dick Jones represents Scott in the shot put.

WOODWARD'S Polar Bears were the next victims of the rampaging Bulldogs, losing by an 82 to 36 margin. Scott showed too much class to be stopped by Woodward and won easily.

Over at Libbey the following Wednesday Scott put on one of its best meets of the year. LIBBEY had a well rounded team and the Bulldogs really had to bear down in every event to win, 65 $\frac{1}{3}$ to 52 $\frac{2}{3}$.

The last city meet of the year was with the WAITE Indians and Scott got partial revenge for the football defeat by beating them 83 to 35. Once again the Bulldogs demonstrated their power and finished the season in second place.

At the district meet in BOWLING GREEN Scott had some tough breaks and wound up in third rather than in the expected second spot.

The boys who qualified at Bowling Green went to Columbus the next week for the state meet and did very well. Bill Burroughs took a third in the quarter mile, Al Stuart took a third in the high jump, and the sprint relay team took a fifth.

In the fall, varsity letters were awarded to Robert Sciplin, Walter Hoover, Al Stuart, Edward Duncan, James Ducat, Russell White, and Adam Cirginski, cross country runners, and to managers Gerald Lichtcsien and Harry Baranowski.

The first meet of the year was with Fremont Ross, a team that is always one of the top few in the state. Fremont showed some of the reasons why they take championships and beat the seagoing Bulldogs 47 to 19.

The next meet was one that never should have been lost to DeVilbiss by a score of 39 to 27. This was the first time in many years that DeVilbiss has had a swimming team, but they showed up well in city and district competition.

Scott broke into the winning column next by beating Findlay 45 to 21. This avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Findlay, and by the same score as in the first meet.

The Northwestern Ohio District Meet took place the next weekend at Bowling Green. Scott took sixth place.

Sandusky managed to beat Scott by a margin of 12 points, the score being 39 to 27. It was one of those meets that are decided by one or two events and was a tough one to lose even though it was to a team that took the state championship the previous year.

The city swimming meet was held the following Saturday at the Y.M.C.A. and Scott took second place, DeVilbiss nabbing first.

In the final meet at Columbus, Dick Guyton came through for Scott, as he has all year, and took 11th place in the state in diving.

Bowling

Standing: Mr. Hoekenga, Herman Birkenkamp, Harold Kontrovitz, Dick Griffith, Don Martin, Ronald Wysocki. Seated: Chuck Libbe, Jim Hill, Melvin Manoff.

Once again Scott entered three teams of keglers in the high school league. The two American League teams saw a rather rough season, but not one that was an entire loss. Several individuals on the Scott team had sparkling games of well over 200, and a few were even so fortunate as to roll out a series of over 600 for three games. However, it took more than a few good breaks to win this season, and the two American League teams wound up in last and next to last places.

Jim Hill, John Bak, Alvin Bak, Dave Brown, Jim Einhart, Don Loss and Ronnie Wysocki made up one team, while Herb Hattner, Melvin Manoff, Bob Graver, Jack Rahrig, George Smith, Sidney Harrie and Milton Mozen made up the other in the American League.

In the National League the Scott boys ran up against some more stiff competition and also ended in the cellar. This team consisted of Chuck Libbe, Jim Todak, Don Martin, Bud Cothran, Dick Nathanson and Bud Rose.

Bowling at Gazzolo's alleys each Saturday, the boys got a lot of worthwhile experience which may pay off in next year's competition.

The baseball team, under Al Sacksteder, turned in a fairly profitable season. They played their full round of games and some return engagements besides, winning 6 and losing 6. Another encouraging fact is that many of the boys who played during the 1946 season were back for the 1947 games.

The season opened with Scott playing Central and winning 5 to 4. Central must have resented this beating because they defeated Scott 10 to 2 and 15 to 4 in later meetings.

In the next game the process was reversed with Woodward beating Scott 7 to 6 and the Bulldogs coming back later in the season to take an overwhelming 19 to 0 decision.

Waite followed by taking the long end of a 5 to 3 decision. Waite was one of the three teams that Scott didn't beat in 1946. The other two were Libbey and Macomber. The cowboys slightly swamped Scott by a 17 to 5 count, and the Craftsmen took a 3 to 1 decision.

The Bulldogs followed these two defeats with two victories over Sylvania by counts 7 to 4 and 3 to 1.

In the game with the team from Naval Armory, Scott showed its strength by beating the sailors 7 to 3. The score could have been higher, but Al wanted to give some of the younger boys experience and a chance to practice their teamwork.

Golf

Dan Hartman, Dick Denman, Bob Printke, Frank Stevens, Bob Townsend
Coach Lake, Paul Farmer, Bill Brackney

Glen Lake again coached the Scott golf team. Building a team around Paul Farmer and Frank Stevens, who had played the year before, he turned out a group that won 3 and lost 5 matches. The wins were over Waite, Woodward, and Ottawa Hills. The losses were to Macomber, Central, Libbey, DeVilbiss, and Sylvania.

Probably the most creditable performance of the season was Paul Farmer's round of 67 at Ottawa Park. His score broke the high school record of 68, set in 1938.

With Stevens back for the 1947 season, along with some of the other boys, Mr. Lake began the season with reasonable optimism.

Tennis

Ray Mainwold, Dan Jamieson, Albert Sing, Myron Edelstein, Stanley May

Tennis was the last war-time casualty to recover at Scott. Although there was no city league, the team played six matches. The inexperience of the team proved too great as it was victorious but once.

Stan May, captain, Ray Mainwold, Jack Vrooman, Dan Jamieson, Al Sing, and Mike Edelstein, in that order, made up the team. May—singles, and Jamieson-Vrooman—doubles, were eliminated in the first round at the Bowling Green district meet.

No tennis laurels were gained by the boys on the team, who organized it themselves; but they gave tennis a rebirth at Scott.

Inter-Club Council

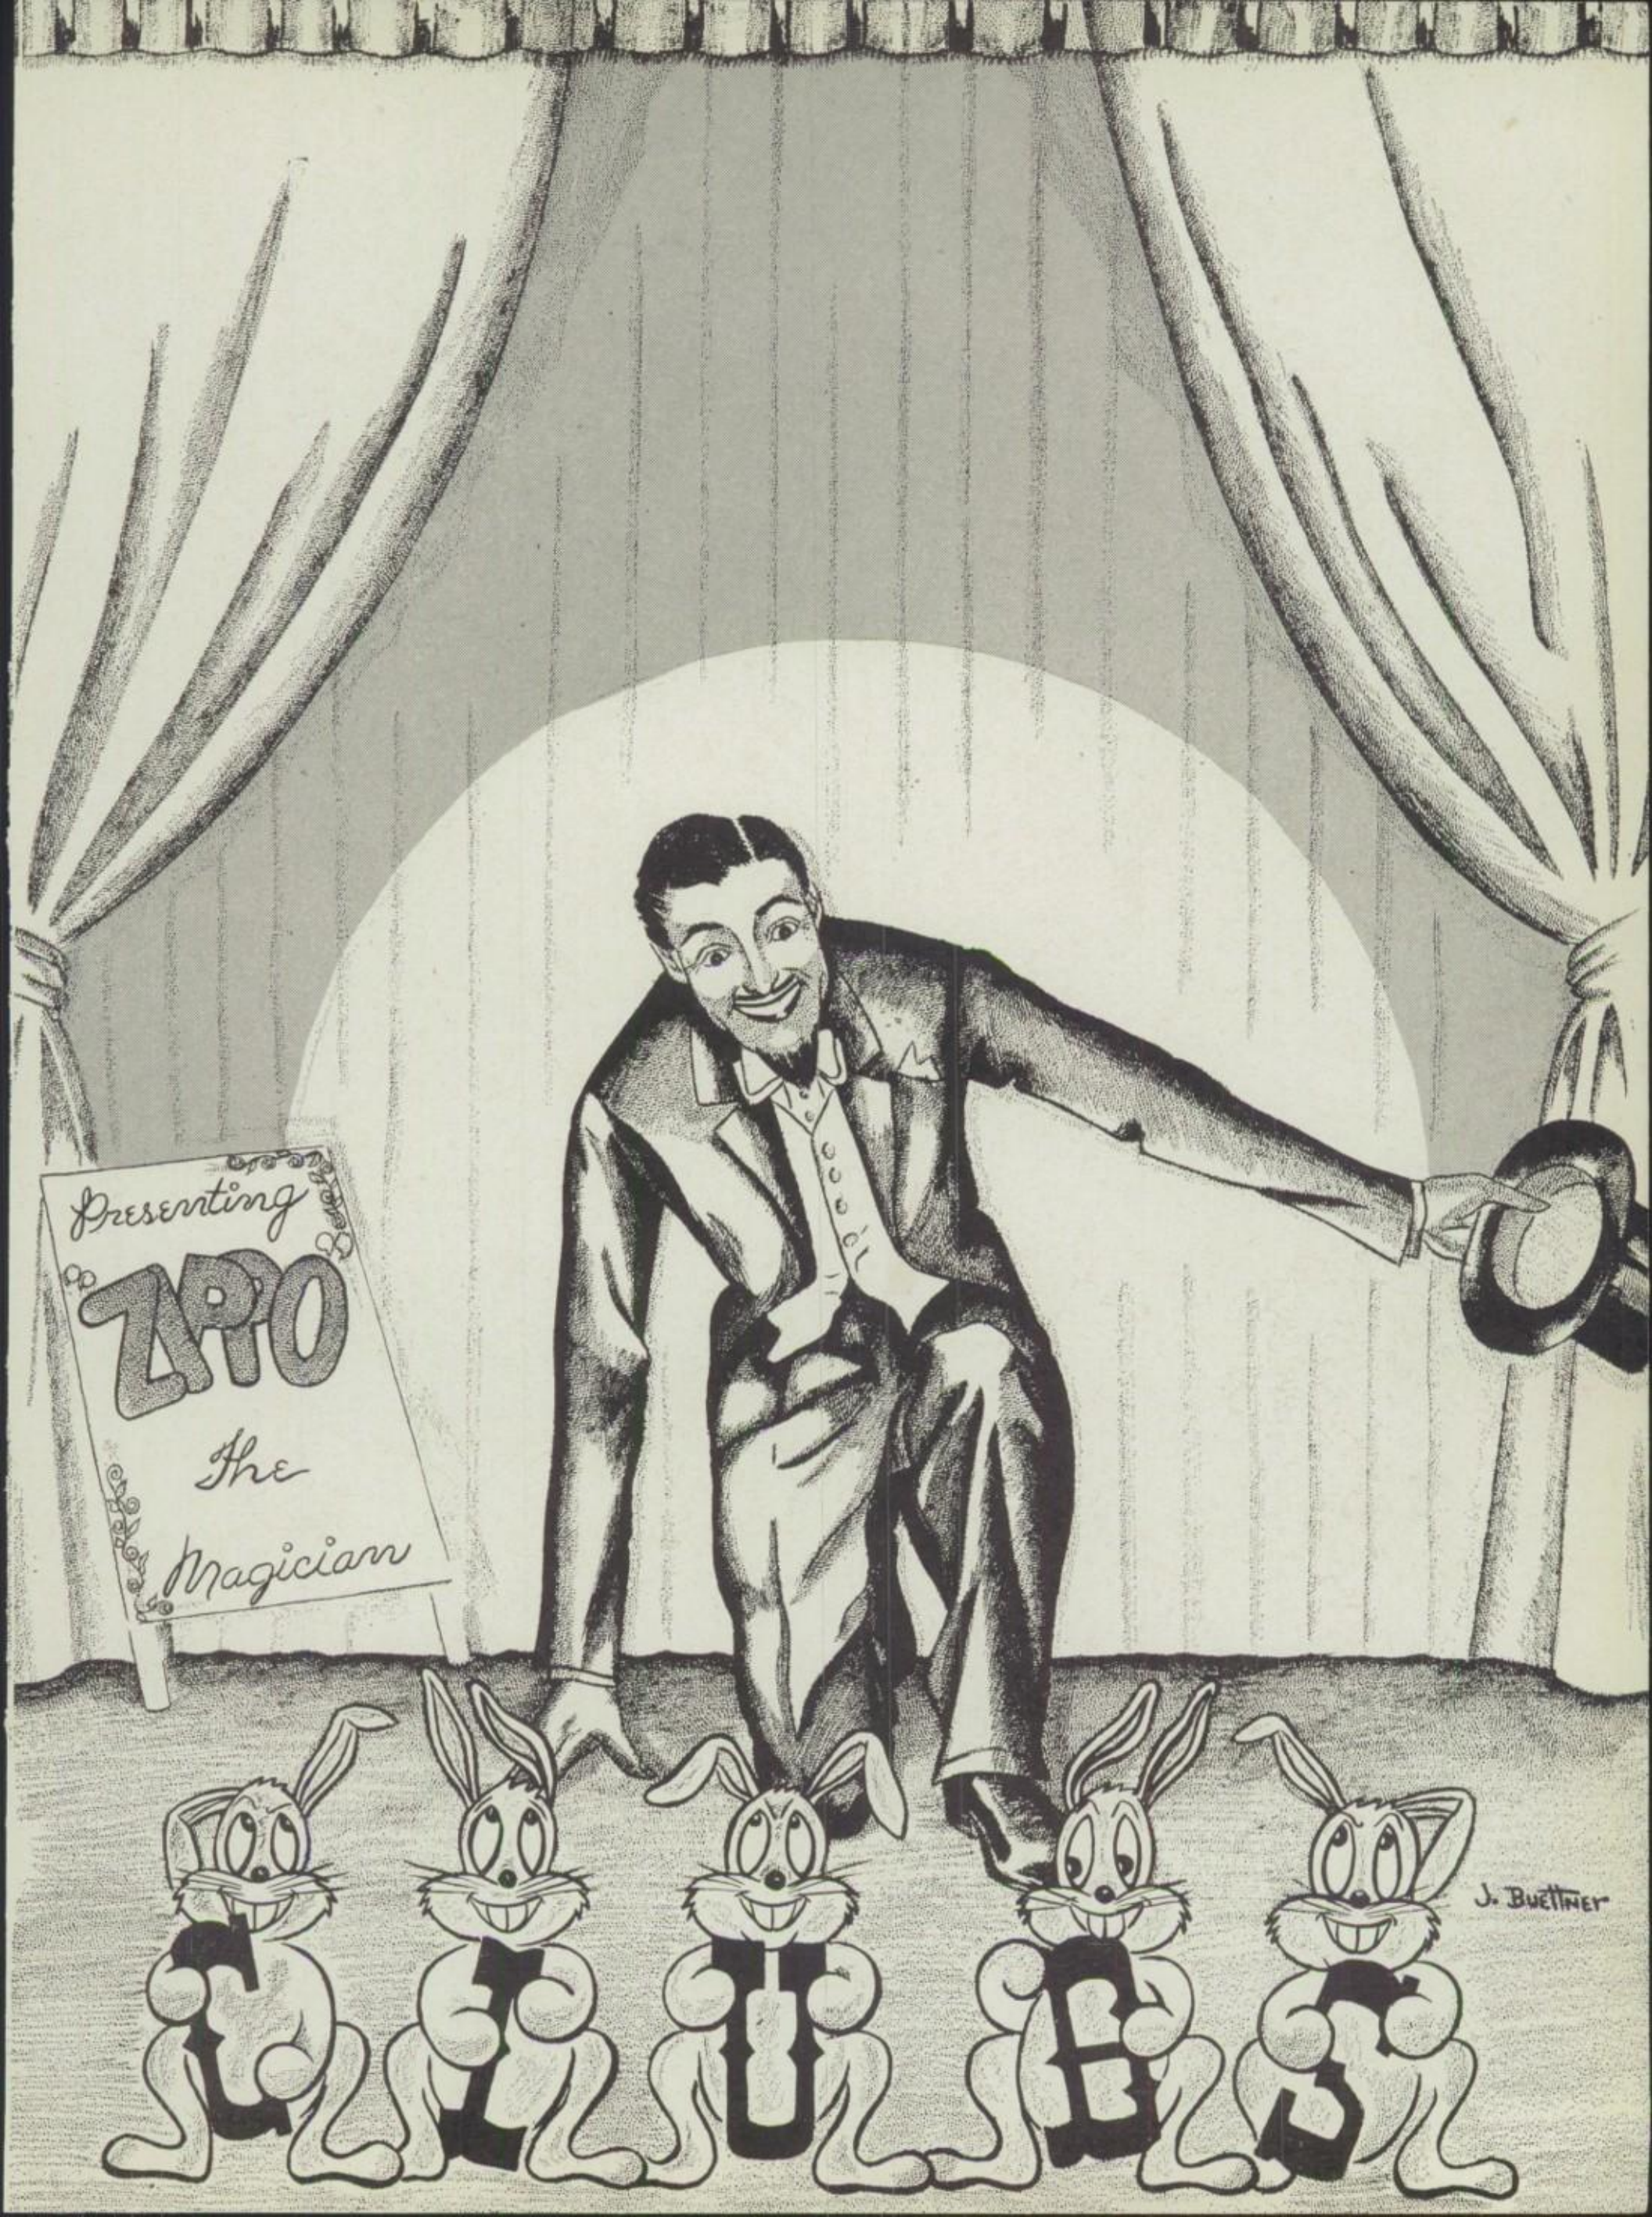

Acting as directing counselor for all Scott's clubs, the Inter-Club Council has been one of our most active organizations this year. The purpose of this council is to promote interest in club membership, to encourage club activities and to act as a clearing house for all club difficulties. The club is composed of a representative from each of Scott's clubs. The club was in charge of the Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations that so gaily adorned the school during those seasons. They assisted the girls' clubs and social commission in a luncheon for the football mothers. The last project of the year was the Senior Farewell Assembly. It was held in May and the Inter-Club Council was assisted by the Junior Class and the Assembly Commission.

The Aeolian Club, composed of students whose main interest is in radio production, forms the nucleus of all dramatic talent in the school. The club works in close cooperation with the script classes and P.A. Production classes. Many dramatic projects are presented throughout the year. Every other Wednesday over Station WTOD a program called "Joe Doakes Through the Ages," dramatizing biographies of famous persons, was presented by this combined group. Other programs of varied types have been given for outside groups. The Aeolians also sponsored a luncheon for the mothers of the football players. These students acquire an excellent foundation for future work in the fields of radio advertising, production, or announcing.

Art Club

In some years, the program of the Scott Art Club has been given over to service to the school or to some outside service—like the U.S.O. This year the group has furthered the art interests of its members by doing art work at their work meetings—not so possible in the shorter art periods of the school day. They have done some etching and some portrait drawing at their regular work meetings. One meeting a month has been devoted to an excursion to the Art Museum, and once a month they have enjoyed a social gathering in the art rooms.

The Alchemist Society is composed of students of chemistry and physics who receive a grade of either A or B. The initiation of new members was held in the late fall. The rough initiation was held first, then the formal, and then refreshments, prepared by some of the members, were served in the refectory.

Chorus

President Joanne Pease
 Vice President David Wallick
 Secretary Annette Kestell
 Treasurer Marylee Seewer
 Librarian Gloria Harmon
 Director Mr. Gerber

This year has been a very busy one for the Scott chorus. Besides presenting the annual Christmas and spring concerts, the choristers participated in a United Nations assembly presenting music of many nations. Trips were made to other schools, and, in collaboration with the orchestra, two radio broadcasts were presented. During the Lenten season the chorus appeared at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. They sang at the Red Cross Rally in the Commodore Perry, and participated in the city-wide concert given in the Peristyle. Each appearance brought credit to them and to their director.

Band

The band this year, as always, provided entertainment at all of the football and basketball games. Under the direction of Mr. Gerber, the members put on some unique formations at many games. April 8, the group played for the Toledo Chamber of Commerce at Macomber. Another project of the band was marching in the parades downtown on such occasions as Armistice Day and Memorial Day. Also this musical group took part in the Spring Music Festival along with the orchestra and chorus. Certain members of the band competed in the district auditions at Bowling Green.

Orchestra

Almost every play needs music to accompany it, and this is the purpose of the Scott orchestra. Most members of this musical group started their careers in their respective grade schools, so that when they got to Scott they were already accomplished musicians. During the year they not only played in many assemblies and participated in the annual Spring Music Festival, but they also were heard in two broadcasts over station WTOL bringing additional acclaim to Scott.

Shakespeare Study Club

Members of this club are devoted students of the greatest of all writers, William Shakespeare. This year they dramatized, for their own benefit, selections from Hamlet, King Lear, The Taming of the Shrew, and Twelfth Night. By their reading and acting Shakespeare's plays, they are not only improving their own culture, but also the culture of Scott.

Cheerleaders

Whenever an athletic performance was staged in the fall, the Scott cheerleaders were right there in front leading the student body in familiar and not so familiar yells. This year six new cheerleaders came up from the club to replace those who will graduate. The first string cheerleaders have been training recruits for next year's football season. The whole club has been working to develop some new cheers for next year. Members of the club supported the spring Sports Queen and sold tickets for the movie and track meet which were held in connection with the election of the queen.

Majorettes

The Majorette Club is essential to school athletics. Members must devote much time to learning the difficult routines, which are displayed at games. The girls practice with the band and also meet after school to learn baton twirling. Appearances are made at all football games and other school functions. Officers of the club are elected at the beginning of the year.

Chess Club

The Chess Club started out this year with a number of practice games to improve the skill of each member. Then a tournament was held to determine the team for inter-school matches. This was composed of Rudy Schmerl, Junior Roe, Norman Doctor, Robert Seigel, and Gerald Lichtsien. They played Whitmer once, and Libbey twice, winning all three contests. Many members entered and placed high in a city chess meet sponsored by the Boys' Club. The boys have had many interesting games this year. Next year they are hoping for a co-educational organization.

The French Club has devoted most of its time to the securing of food and clothing for its adopted French child Gisele Lecoq. They have also had several parties celebrating different holidays such as Christmas and Valentine Day. Members visited the French Art Exhibit at the Museum and participated in the United Nations Assembly by singing the French national anthem in French.

Spanish Club

Scott's Spanish "patrons of the arts" have been kept busy all year. At an opening meeting, Miss Edith Baumgardner of Waite High School gave an interesting talk and showed color films of her last summer's trip through Guatemala. After hearing her talk, the club took as their year's project the sending of boxes to school children in Guatemala. A "Felices Pascuas" party, held near the time that the Spanish people give Christmas gifts, was a big event for the Club members.

Junior Classical League

Sending aid to war-torn and starving Greece was the project that the Classical League carried on this year as in the past. The group has sent $700 including food, clothing, and a cow in the last five years. Money for this purpose was earned by selling ice cream between exams and by collecting tax stamps. The club was helped also by private contributions from the faculty and student body.

Science Club

The Science Club this year was divided into various groups according to the interest of members. The photography group had charge of the National Photography exhibit in February. Herschel McIntosh used the "Scottonian" dark-room to develop and print pictures, hoping for a prize winner for this year's contest. Another group under Rudy Schmerl stocked an aquarium. The meteorology group, under the supervision of Miss Longbrake, has been studying weather. Virginia Wachter was the chairman of this group. The club as a whole had many interesting field trips. They visited the Weather Bureau station at the Toledo airport, the electron microscope at Toledo University, the telephone exchange, the filtration plant, and the research laboratories of Toledo Hospital.

Major players in the welfare program of Scott are the members of the Junior Red Cross Council. This group has a two purpose program—to serve the school and to serve the Red Cross Headquarters. From September until June there is unceasing activity. The two largest projects are the November Roll Call and the annual party for the people at the Toledo Society of the Blind. Thanksgiving, Christmas and Valentine projects, March Roll Call, and the packing of educational gift boxes are just a few of the many projects carried on in a single school year. Miss Fields offers more than her share of the energy and the brain work.

The Sophomore Hi-Y has had mainly an inter-school program this year. They were called on to give devotions at city Hi-Y meetings and participated in the World Day of Prayer at Trinity Episcopal Church. They also furnished interesting programs for combined Hi-Y meetings. The club pledged $36 to the Y.W.C.A. building fund and $100 to the Y.M.C.A. World Rehabilitation Fund. A delegate was sent by the club to the state Hi-Y Congress last fall. Through these activities the club has achieved respect for their group and for Scott.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y had a very successful "run" this season. They had two experiences which all the members will remember for a very long time. First they gave a hayride at which all the boys and their dates had a good time and drank lots of cider. Their outstanding program of the year was that at which Carl Bruno showed movies which he took while learning to operate Japanese submarines, and pictures of the fastest submarine in the world.

Freshman Y-Teen

During their first year at Scott the Freshman Y-Teen "went places and did things." Among the entertainments staged were a skating party, a Christmas party and a splash party at the Y.W.C.A. At one meeting they saw pictures of Camp Walbridge and made plans to send delegates to the 1947 summer term. A roast and hayride were planned as spring activities.

The members of the Sophomore Y-Teen initiated their club year with a tea for their mothers and teachers. A skating party for the Freshman Y-Teen was given later in the year. During the football season the girls sold programs to raise money for the building fund of the Y. W. C. A. Also they sponsored a card party for additional money for the building fund. Two teas were held for teachers at which guest speakers were heard. During the spring months the club had several hikes, and as a final fling, a spring dance was held.

Junior Y-Teen

The Junior Y-Teen has had a busy year. They started off with a big success, their roast at Ottawa Park. At one of our basketball games, they made a big hit with all students when they held a popcorn sale. One of their more interesting meetings was held at the Society for the Hard of Hearing. A bright spot in their social meetings was the game party. A fudge sale in the halls was their last project of the year.

There were many projects completed by the Senior Y-Teen Club this year. Among these was the entertainment at the Scott-DeVilbiss mass meeting. The girls also sold football programs at this game. At Thanksgiving time three bulletin boards in the halls were decorated and corsages were presented to the football mothers at the annual Thanksgiving assembly. The traditional maroon and white mums were sold at the game. The club also invited many speakers to their meetings. One of the outstanding speakers was Miss Madeline Brayer, former Scott student and New York model. The club sold Scott stickers and sponsored the Easter assembly.

G. A. L. S.

The Girls Athletic League of Scott started their year of activities with a roast at Ottawa Park. They had a lot of fun all year with field ball, volleyball, and basketball tournaments. The girls also helped with the sale of programs during football season. They closed the year with a spring banquet. The club's main interest is in teamwork, sportsmanship and stimulating interest in sports for later life.

The Zets have frequently been in the limelight this past season. Their first social event was a Hallowe'en party that was followed by a hayride held at Pearson Park on November 8th. Near the end of November, 45 pledges were initiated. A Christmas party was held at school on December 20. In January, a skirt and sweater party was held at one of the members' homes. A skating party in April was also a big success. The Zets completed their year's activity with a Mother's Day Tea.

National Honor Society

Every year in late spring some of the top-ranking "actors" of the junior and senior classes are inducted into the National Honor Society. At each of their meetings this year they held discussion about different colleges. They sponsored the College Clinic and brought Mr. Frank E. Nofke, of Case School, and Mr. John A. Hutchinson of Wooster College to speak to college hopefuls. On February 28 the Honor Society presented an assembly featuring Mr. Earl F. Baum as the speaker.

Future Teachers Of America

The purpose of this newest Scott club is to learn about the opportunities in teaching, to cultivate the character qualities essential to good teachers, and to foster the development of student leadership. The opening activity was a breakfast in the Scott refectory on March 20. Mr. E. L. Bowsher was guest speaker. The club also helped to organize such clubs in other high schools in the city.

Student Council

Fred Hibbert

Margie Greene

Ray Reisbach

The duties of government are performed for the "actors" of Scott by the student council which functioned under a revised constitution this year. By it, Ray Reisbach was elected president by popular vote, instead of by electoral votes from homerooms. Fred Hibbert was elected vice president and Margie Greene, secretary.

Each commission had its own specific duties, but on the big projects, the whole council worked together. The board of commissioners was on hand for Freshman Day to welcome the new understudies. After the new home-room representatives were elected for the year, their positions were made official at the installation dinner. Everyone displayed zeal in putting across the first big undertaking of the year—the P.-T. A. drive. Through a little effort they made Sadie Hawkins Day and Farm Frolic Day two of the most enjoyable of school days. The big moneymaking project of the year was the magazine campaign; the council was in charge of it and enough money was earned to nearly cover expenses for a new football scoreboard and a tennis court. Three very enjoyable social events were presented in the latter part of the year: the winter sports banquet, honoring the basketball teams; the "Scottza-Playin'" card party; and the Popcorn Ball in the gym.

The work of the student council—the commissions and as a whole—can well be praised, for it is perhaps the greatest influence in making Scott an enjoyable place to be.

Council Commissions

Standing: Martin Abrams, Mrs. Meffley, Chuck Shapler. Seated: Eleanor Morizen, Estelle Williams, Barney Hein, Pat Wenger, Shirley Williams.

The ASSEMBLY COMMISSION under Chuck Shapler was in charge of all of those assemblies this year which provided such an enjoyable diversion from regular school routine.

Standing: Ed Cooper, Charles Parmelee, John Roemer, Don Ulmer. Seated: Paul Martin, George Cherry, Fred Rothman.

George Cherry and his ATHLETIC COMMISSION put on some of the mass meetings, and scored the grade-school track meets. They also helped Doc Meissner with the track meets.

Standing: Bill Eaton, Nan Stoiber, Jim Machen, Ike Nicholas, Leonard Plunkett, Eileen DeVaul, Ed Snyder, Zenny Koinis. Seated: Ida Thomas and Louis Millman.

After a successful campaign to clean up lockers, the CITIZENSHIP COMMISSION found it necessary to hand out penalties to some students who refused to lock their lockers. Louis Millman, commissioner, worked hard to make the lockers safe.

Standing: David Plant, Dick Williams, Sue Shawaker, Bill Geiger, Al Stuart, Jean Miles, Jim Swiatek. Seated: Albert Davison, Mr. Langstaff.

Al Davison might become a very prosperous bank president some day, for he and his FINANCE COMMISSION have made money selling all sorts of tickets to various school affairs and have not lost a penny, so far as anyone knows.

Standing: Ruth Ann Rupp, Mary Hountras, Carole Lippman, Marcia Zimmerman, Sue Weaver, Sue Hastin, Lois Hudgin, Miriam Eppstein. Seated: Mrs. Meffley.

The ORGANIZATIONS COMMISSION under Carol Lippman has had charge of all class and student council elections as well as the job of seeing that all clubs function actively and according to their constitutions. It has worked very closely with the inter-club council.

Standing: Anna Tom, JoAnne Douglas, Martha Hibbert, Sallie Weber, Amy Ward, Dick Dageforde, Barbara Wood, David Boice, James Kirkham, Jerry Knox. Seated: Kenneth Hutchison, Ted Kirk.

The PUBLICITY COMMISSION gets the most notice of its work, for hardly a day goes by without some events being announced by a hall banner. Kenneth Hutchinson and Ted Kirk, co-commissioners, made sure that these signs were put up and taken down by the proper time.

Standing: Gloria Nelson, Frank Stevens, Nancy Rogers, Jean Bonner, Eleanor Brauer, Betty Adams, Elizabeth Martz, Jackie Paterwich, Luette Freeman, Cookie Beck, Nan Linder, Barbara Jones, Barbara Charnas, Mary Rose Rice, Bob Mayer. Seated: Miss Schaff.

While the social events mentioned above were actually done through the whole council, much of the responsibility fell to Cookie Beck and the SOCIAL COMMISSION. They also aided other school groups in planning dances.

Candidates for Thanksgiving Day game queen—Cookie Beck, Dolores Lubell, Jean Bonner, Pat Valois and Frances Wright . . . Ray Reisbach takes the student council president's oath from Mr. Langstaff. Mr. Kirk displays prizes in the magazine contest . . . Scottza-Playin' . . . Senior Y-Teen entertains at Scott-DeVilbiss assembly . . . Two General Motors representatives illustrate jet propulsion at the "Previews of Progress" . . . More Scottza-Playin' . . . More queen candidates—Gloria Nelson, Jean Bonner again, Ruth Hawkins, Joy Bullard, Margie Greene.

Thistle

Mary Lou David, Miss Leitner, Hilda Wolman.

It's no joke, son, when Thistle deadline comes around—especially if you're a member of the staff! One minute the "copy" basket is empty; the next, a barrage of stories fills it to capacity. From room 215 issues the continual clatter of the typewriter accompanying the rewriting, copy reading and page make-up—all essential tasks that only co-operation could accomplish. When the Thistle finally does appear "on the newsstand" the staff will tell you, most certainly, that "a headache was had by all!"

Co-editors Hilda Wolman and Mary Lou David, however, will tell you that it was a lot of fun, too. Beverly Manoff, feature editor, got a big thrill out of seeing that final page emerge a thing of beauty (to the journalist's eye) from the conglomeration sent in to the printer. June Keeler and Sylvia Blumenthal, regular feature writers, can best explain the feeling of seeing their original "brain-babies" appear in print. It was Joanne Buettner, James Brewton, or Richard Redd who each time submitted a clever cartoon for the feature page.

Dick Bracker deftly edited all the sports stories, and those on the lookout for sports items of interest were Burt Laderman, Merv Herman, and Betsy Curtiss. Vivian Cothran handled news assignments for the first semester, and Don Pease took over for the second half of the year.

Al Russell, business manager, and Bill Silverman, his assistant, did much when the figures in the balance book were red. Paul Cowley and Dave Wallick were the "shuttermen" responsible for the Thistle pictures.

A bouquet to Miss Geraldine Leitner who, in handling both the Thistle and Scottonian, did such a wonderful job with both.

Scottonian

Barbara Harrison, Miss Leitner, Donna Peterson.

"You can't enjoy the play without a libretto." That is what the Scottonian staff kept saying in November to those students who hadn't started a subscription.

Barbara Harrison and Donna Peterson as co-editors did much of the actual work themselves as well as planning and supervising the book. With the aid of Miss Geraldine Leitner, the adviser, they managed to have everything completed on time without any great last minute rush. Dorothy Arenson, capable business manager, had charge of the subscription campaign and solicited most of the ads, freeing the staff from financial worries.

As usual, Mr. Ryan's art students contributed excellent illustrations. Barbara Brown, art editor, assisted by Joanne Buettner and Ted Kirk, spent many hours on the drawings. Candid pictures were taken in large numbers (when flash bulbs were available) by staff photographers David Wallick and Paul Cowley and then were paneled by sophomores Walter Ritzman and Don Goff.

Faculty editor Joy Bullard compiled information for the teachers' section and assisted Charles Parmelee, literary editor, in the writing of other copy. Luette Freeman, senior editor and Evelyn Zenz, underclass editor, completed their sections on time. Dolores Jacobi assisted with the typing. Sports write-ups were capably handled by Dick Jones.

The staff hopes that the 1947 audience will find this scholastic review as enjoyable as the year which it portrays.

Beginner's Luck

● The girl who starts in telephone work finds real beginner's luck.

She learns her job pleasantly with other beginners just like herself—possibly from her own school. She works in light, airy offices with the latest in equipment. She relaxes in beautiful lounges with friendly co-workers.

She takes home a good-sized weekly paycheck which she knows will increase steadily through scheduled raises. Her supervisors are congenial and understanding. They reached supervisory levels from beginning jobs just like hers. Promotions are made from within the ranks and today's greatly increased traffic has speeded up these promotions.

The telephone beginner strikes it lucky because she has chosen a company which earned its reputation for being "a good place to work".
